

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ECONOMIC CRIME MANAGEMENT

The biggest victims of economic crime are organisations run by professionals who think it can never happen to them. The country's economy, reputation, and stability will be damaged if nothing is done to stop economic crime within organisations."

Dato' Akhbar Haji Satar

CFE, AIBM, MA (Criminal Justice)
(Detroit)

Director, Institute of Crime &
Criminology, HELP University College

- President of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) - Malaysia Chapter
- Practising Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and Certified Forensic Polygraph Examiner
- Has more than 18 years of service with the former Malaysian Anti-Corruption Agency (now MACC) and over 10 years in the corporate sector

••• INTAKE: 1 OCT 2011

THE PROGRAM

- The only program of its kind in the region
- Taught by experienced professionals
- Covers computer fraud, internet security and advanced economic crime (money laundering, organised crime, financing for terrorism)
- Combines accounting skills with law enforcement skills to investigate and tackle economic crime
- Comprehensive understanding of local and regional laws, and financial and regulatory systems
- Includes core business concepts and the tools and laws necessary for fraud prevention
- The program can be completed in 18 months

ENTRY REQUIREMENT

- Approved bachelor's degree or an equivalent academic or professional qualification

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Public sector investigative or enforcement agencies
- Criminal corporate investigation in the private sector
- Private investigators or corporate investigators
- Corporate heads, CEOs, CFOs
- Forensic Accounting
- Auditing

www.help.edu.my | Tel: 603-2711 2000 ext 5109

facebook facebook.com/HELPUniversity

twitter twitter.com/HELPUni